

Study of Peter

The following are the specific references to Peter in the New Testament listed in chronological order (to the best of my ability).

Passages where parallels exist and Peter is explicitly mentioned are placed below the first reference and denoted by a “|” symbol.

As you read through the passages answer the following questions (as they apply):

1. What do you observe about Peter through his actions, words, responses, and reactions?
2. As you track Peter's journey, his life develops in a way similar to that of a character arc, like those seen in movies, novels, and stories. What minor and major developments in his character, faith, calling, or purpose do you notice over time?
3. Identify themes, truths, or principles about God's work in and through an individual that emerge from a particular reference or build across multiple references.

TIP: Jot down your observations and thoughts. This will help you recall your insights for our discussion in October.
